Keeping Standards up-to-date

Standards are living documents which reflect progress in science, technology and systems. To maintain their currency, all Standards are periodically reviewed, and new editions are published. Between editions, amendments may be issued. Standards may also be withdrawn. It is important that readers assure themselves they are using a current Standard, which should include any amendments which may have been published since the Standard was purchased.

Detailed information about joint Australian/New Zealand Standards can be found by visiting the Standards Web Shop at www.saiglobal.com.au or Standards New Zealand web site at www.standards.co.nz and looking up the relevant Standard in the on-line catalogue.

For more frequent listings or notification of revisions, amendments and withdrawals, Standards Australia and Standards New Zealand offer a number of update options. For information about these services, users should contact their respective national Standards organization.

We also welcome suggestions for improvement in our Standards, and especially encourage readers to notify us immediately of any apparent inaccuracies or ambiguities. Please address your comments to the Chief Executive of either Standards Australia or Standards New Zealand at the address shown on the back cover.

PREFACE

This Handbook was prepared by the Joint Standards Australia/Standards New Zealand Committee QR-008, Quality Management Systems to supersede HB 90.1—2000, The Small Business Handbook—Guide to ISO 9001:2000.

The objective of this revision is to adopt the current edition of the ISO Guide which relates the 2008 edition of ISO 9001 to the development and maintenance of quality management systems in small businesses.

This Handbook is identical with, and has been reproduced from the ISO publication, ISO 9001 for Small Business, What to do, Advice from ISO/TC 176. This Handbook includes extracts from ISO 9001:2008 but does not incorporate its full text.

International Standards referenced in this Handbook have been adopted as Australian/New Zealand Standards as follows:

Reference to International Standard

ISO

9000 Quality management systems—Fundamentals and vocabulary

9001 Quality management systems—Requirements

9004 Managing for the sustained success of an organization—A quality management approach

14001 Environmental management systems—requirements with guidance for use

19011 Guidelines for quality and/or environmental management systems auditing

Australian/New Zealand Standard
