Keeping Standards up-to-date

Standards are living documents which reflect progress in science, technology and systems. To maintain their currency, all Standards are periodically reviewed, and new editions are published. Between editions, amendments may be issued. Standards may also be withdrawn. It is important that readers assure themselves they are using a current Standard, which should include any amendments which may have been published since the Standard was purchased.

Detailed information about joint Australian/New Zealand Standards can be found by visiting the Standards Web Shop at www.standards.com.au or Standards New Zealand web site at www.standards.co.nz and looking up the relevant Standard in the on-line catalogue.

Alternatively, both organizations publish an annual printed Catalogue with full details of all current Standards. For more frequent listings or notification of revisions, amendments and withdrawals, Standards Australia and Standards New Zealand offer a number of update options. For information about these services, users should contact their respective national Standards organization.

We also welcome suggestions for improvement in our Standards, and especially encourage readers to notify us immediately of any apparent inaccuracies or ambiguities. Please address your comments to the Chief Executive of either Standards Australia or Standards New Zealand at the address shown on the back cover.

This Standard was issued in draft form for comment as DR 08005.

PREFACE

This Standard was prepared by the Joint Standards Australia/Standards New Zealand Committee QR-008, Quality Management Systems.

This Standard incorporates Amendment No. 1 (February 2012). The changes required by the Amendments are indicated in the text by a marginal bar and amendment number against the clause, note, table, figure or part thereof affected.

This Standard is identical with, and has been reproduced from ISO 9001:2008, Quality management systems—Requirements, published by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO), which was prepared by ISO Technical Committee TC 176, Quality Management and Quality Assurance, Subcommittee SC 2, Quality Systems. Committee QR-008 provided input to the ISO Committee during the preparation of this revision.

This fourth edition of AS/NZS ISO 9001 replaces AS/NZS ISO 9001:2000, which will remain available until December 2011.

The objective of the revision is improved clarity, within the overall requirement that an organization that has fully implemented ISO 9001:2000 should not have to make changes to its quality management system in order to comply with the new edition. This edition enhances compatibility with ISO 14001:2004 and hence the Australian adoption AS/NZS ISO 14001:2004 on environmental management systems. Details of specific changes between the third edition and this fourth edition are given in Annex B.

As this Standard is reproduced from an International Standard, the following applies:

- (a) Its number appears on the cover and title page while the International Standard number appears only on the cover.
- (b) In the source text ‘this International Standard’ should read ‘this Australian/New Zealand Standard’.
- (c) A full point substitutes for a comma when referring to a decimal marker.

References to International Standards should be replaced by references to Australian or Australian/New Zealand Standards, as follows:

Reference to International Standard		Australian/New Zealand Standard

9004	Quality management systems— Guidelines for performance improvements	9004	Quality management systems— Guidelines for performance improvement
14001	Environmental management systems—Requirements with guidance for use	14001	Environmental management systems—Requirements with guidance for use

The term ‘informative’ has been used in this Standard to define the application of the annex to which it applies. An ‘informative’ annex is only for information and guidance.
