This European Standard was approved by CEN on 1993-10-11. CEN members are bound to comply with the CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations which stipulate the conditions for giving this European Standard the status of a national standard without any alteration.

Up-to-date lists and bibliographical references concerning such national standards may be obtained on application to the Central Secretariat or to any CEN member.

The European Standards exist in three official versions (English, French, German). A version in any other language made by translation under the responsibility of a CEN member into its own language and notified to the Central Secretariat has the same status as the official versions.

CEN members are the national standards bodies of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and United Kingdom.

The Technical Board decided to submit the International Standard "Codes for the representation of names of countries (ISO 3166:1993)" to Formal Vote. The standard was approved.

According to the CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations, the following countries are bound to implement this European Standard:

Endorsement notice

The names of countries and their codes listed in EN 23166:1993 identical to ISO 3166:1993 are subject to updates.

Therefore, this endorsement notice applies to the 1993 edition of ISO 3166 as well as to all additions, modifications and deletions, called "up-dates" of the lists of entities and codes subsequently registered by the Maintenance Agency.

In order to ensure that the names of countries and the codes are accurate, the up-to-date information should be obtained from the Maintenance Agency, the address of which is:

The Commission Regulation (EEC) N°208/93 of 1st February 1993 (OJEC N° L25, 2.2.1993) (and its future revisions) on the "Country Nomenclature for the external trade statistics of the Community and statistics of trade between Member States" establishes the 3-digit code of the Statistical office of the European Community to be used for reporting trade statistics. The 3-digit code of EN 23166 is, therefore, not applicable in this particular context.
